Project description: In a 250-word typed essay, identify the topic, questions, issues, authors, and/or texts you are interested in exploring in your English honors thesis. Attach the essay to this form.

List three faculty members who can recommend you. These individuals should be familiar with your work habits and able to judge whether you have the analytical and writing skills necessary to complete an honors thesis. Note: At least two should be members of Lafayette's English Department, but the third can be a member of any department.
